DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-17 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach a duobinary encoder that comprises, inter alia, a signal generation unit that determines whether phases of other channels are shifted or not according to an input signal on the basis of a predetermined channel of the N channels, a phase division unit for dividing data into a first data group having non-shifted phases and a second data group which requires a phase shift according to an output signal generation unit; the prior art does not also teach a first number of AND gates that couple data input signals to the output of a plurality of exclusive-or gates and second number of AND gates that couple data input signals to the output of a plurality of inverters, the inverters are coupled to the output of the exclusive or gates.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
